

Does your PV function effectively support your company's objectives?

Benefits

Optimized and Harmonized PV Systems including:

- Scalable processes to manage increasing case volumes
- Harmonized processes to support compliance
- Proactive risk management
- Streamlining of worldwide PV Operations
- Improved oversight through meaningful, accurate, and timely metrics

Organic growth, mergers, acquisitions, and regulatory changes have resulted in an inefficient PV System - people, process, technology - that is poorly integrated and not as effective as it could be

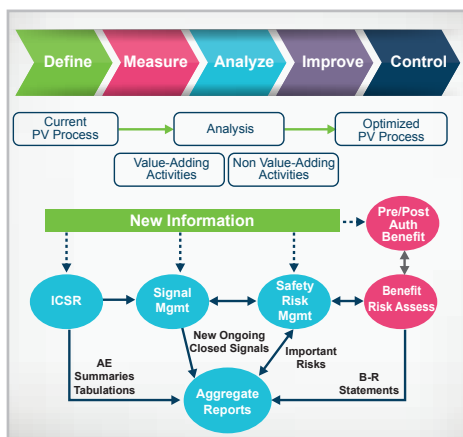

- Inability to scale up to handle annual growth in ICSRs
- Poor cross-functional collaboration
- Misaligned roles, responsibilities, and governance structures
- Lack of consistency in processes across countries and regions
- Increased regulatory findings
- Limited visibility of metrics that measure compliance, effectiveness, and efficiency
- Lack of system integration

TAKE Solutions provides an integrated approach leading to impactful results
