

Do you have labeling oversight, from signal to implementation?

Benefits

End-to-End Labeling and Management:

- Ensures compliance to regulations and maintains license to operate
- Joined up processes i.e. End-to-End, Signal-to-Patient, HQ-to-Affiliates
- Effective linkages of data, processes, systems and governance across multiple functions: PV, RA, Medical Affairs, Artwork, Quality and Supply Chain
- Defined timelines, metrics and tracking for all activities and milestones, together with KPIs to monitor adherence
- Smarter decision making enabling better planning and cost reduction

Regulators are increasingly demanding greater visibility and oversight of the labeling process which spans functional boundaries and multiple systems – both internal and external to the organization
